A Message From the Director

Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer Prize and Drama Critics Circle Award winning play Cat on a Hot Tin Roof is our latest production in our very challenging 2017 Pulitzer Prize winning season, and what an exhilarating piece of theatre it is! As the esteemed Edward Albee stated, "The sensuality and excitement of Cat . . . first heated up Broadway in 1955 with its Gothic American story of two brothers (and their wives) vying for the inheritance of their dying father, Big Daddy, amid a whirlwind of sexuality untethered (in the person of Maggie the Cat), and the burden of love repressed (in the person of her husband, Brick Pollitt)."

I couldn't say it better. Susquehanna Stage Co. is thrilled to offer you such a challenging and classic play by this romantic poet of the theatre. As we know, you can choose your friends, but you can't choose your family. Big Daddy's family is at the least memorable and at the most exacerbatng. We are thrilled to introduce you to our stellar ensemble, and we thank you for supporting live theatre in our community.

It has been a wonderfully creative and successful season for this director, beginning in early spring with Next to Normal, Crimes of the Heart, the wildly successful A Chorus Line in the summer and now Williams' masterwork, Cat on a Hot Tin Roof. My cup runneth over with gratitude for all the actors, backstage volunteers, AND the audiences who have supported us. Please join us in December as we wrap up our season with How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, directed by Mr. Nick Smith. Exciting plans await us in 2018 as we prepare and present our 10th anniversary season of thrilling, memorable theatrical experiences. You don't want to miss a single show! Love and humble thanks to each and every one of you!

About the Cast

BARBARA STRONG ELLIS (Big Mama Pollit) makes her Susquehanna Stage Co. debut in this production of Cat On A Hot Tin Roof. Barbara, however, is no stranger to theatre goers in the Susquehanna Valley. She has appeared in performances at EPAC, Hershey Area Playhouse, First Stage, Actors Company of PA, and the Elizabethtown Music Foundation over the last 29 Years. She met her husband, Gene "Big Daddy," while employed in a summer theatre company 43 years ago. Barbara has a resume that includes over 100 roles in her 50 years of stage, radio, and film acting. Her fondest dream is that mendacity will cease and honesty will prevail. "Time goes by so fast...we need to just love each other..." Thanks to Dopey!

GENE ELLIS (Big Daddy) is making his first appearance at Susquehanna Stage Co. and he is very happy to be working with Jim and this cast. He recently retired from the Speech and Theater department at Millersville University. There he directed Spring Awakening, Hair, Proof, and Little Shop of Horrors, just to name a few. He has also performed at EPAC and Hershey Area Playhouse. He was last seen in EPAC's King Lear and will be in SSC's next production of How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying in December. Thanks Jim, for the chance to explore this role. Thanks Barbara, I love working with you.

RICH MEHRENBURG (Doctor Baugh) was last seen at Susquehanna Stage Co. as Mr. Dussel in The Diary of Anne Frank. He has acted in shows in many companies throughout Central Pennsylvania including EPAC, The Belmont Theater, The Theater of the Seventh Sister and Dreamwrights.

JAMES STRICKLER (Rev. Tooker) joined SSC in the spring of 2010 for Our Town. He went on to perform in ten musicals, dramas and comedies. He also has assisted Linda Boozer with the summer camp for kids and several SSC Children's Workshop Productions. He is blessed to have worked at SSC in many different capacities and hopes to be able to continue to do so for some time.
